SO START MAKING YOUR TRAVEL PLANS NOW!

Annapolis and its surrounding waters are a remarkable place to sail the J/22. Annapolis offers a level of resources for regatta support that is unmatched in all but a handful of the world's global sailing centers. Annapolis' central location on the east coast of the US makes it an ideal place to host an international event. It is served by three international airports and the Port of Baltimore. Visit <http://www.annapolis.gov/> for more information.

Eastport Yacht Club is internationally known for its high-visibility racing, philanthropic and social events. It's a fun, informal club that welcomes all people young in age or heart. Its Race Committee hosts and manages some of the biggest and best races on the bay. EYC is the "little club" that could, did and continues to do.

HOTELS AND VACATION RENTALS:

Annapolis can routinely accommodate large numbers of out-of-town visitors. There are currently over 2,000 hotel rooms in Historic & Greater Annapolis in over 20 separate hotels. The Annapolis area currently supports over 300 private homes and condominium rentals that can support teams of any size. The timing of the event allows competitors to avoid the peak pricing of summer and Annapolis Boat Shows.
